

Rules

1. No harassing other guests of the hotel. For that matter, don't harass anybody!
2. No running, yelling, or shoving in public areas.
3. All weapons must be properly peace bonded. Security decides what is a weapon. Projectile weapons must be secured by security, i.e. a zip tie around the trigger. Realistic looking prop weapons need a blaze orange tip. Any weapon that is not or can not be properly secured or peace bonded can be confiscated by convention security and held until the end of your convention. If you have any questions about peace bonding your weapon please contact security in con operations. If they have any questions regarding your weapon they will not hesitate to contact you.
4. The legal drinking age in Nebraska is 21. Please observe this law for yourself and for your guests.
5. ConStellation reserves the right to revoke your con badge and eject you from the convention for any reason.
6. ConStellation does not provide childcare services. If you have brought children with you, you are responsible for them.
7. If you wouldn't want to be caught doing whatever it is you are doing, stop doing it. Even better -- don't start.
8. Please report lost badges. If you have ID, Registration may issue you a replacement badge. Please wear your badge at all times (in a visible location, please).
9. Please do not take food out of the ConSuite or room parties. These rooms have permission from the hotel for outside food, the rest of the convention does not.
10. This is a family convention so please keep behavior and language in public areas at the PG level before 9 pm.
